Tampa Bay Super Cup Announces Visit Tampa Bay as Official Host Partner

Tampa Bay Sports Commission Continues Longstanding Partnership with One of the Nation's Premier Youth Soccer Events

TAMPA, FL — The Tampa Bay Super Cup is proud to officially announce Visit Tampa Bay as the tournament's Host Partner for the upcoming event, further strengthening the relationship between one of the country's fastest-growing youth soccer tournaments and the Tampa Bay region.

In addition, the Tampa Bay Sports Commission will continue its valued partnership with the tournament, reinforcing its commitment to bringing elite sporting events and tourism opportunities to the Tampa Bay area.

The Tampa Bay Super Cup has quickly become one of the largest and most competitive youth soccer tournaments in the United States, attracting top clubs and talent from across the country and internationally. The event continues to generate significant economic impact for the region while showcasing Tampa Bay as a premier destination for sports tourism.

Tournament By The Numbers:

- 1,200+ Teams
- 20,000+ Players
- 150+ College & Professional Scouts
- Teams from 35+ States
- Representation from 5+ Countries
- 50+ Fields Across Tampa Bay

“We are excited to welcome Visit Tampa Bay as our Host Partner and continue building alongside the Tampa Bay Sports Commission,” said Novi Maric. “These partnerships reflect the incredible growth of the Tampa Bay Super Cup and our shared vision of making Tampa Bay a destination for elite youth sports. Together, we are creating an unforgettable experience for players, families, coaches, and scouts from around the world.”

“The Tampa Bay Super Cup has rapidly emerged as one of the preeminent youth soccer events in the country, and we’re proud to continue supporting its growth here in our community,” said Jason Aughey. “Events of this scale create tremendous impact for our local economy and showcase everything that makes Tampa Bay a world-class sports tourism destination. We are excited to build upon our incredible partnership with Florida Premier FC, in collaboration with Visit Tampa Bay, and welcome athletes, families, coaches and scouts from throughout the country to our destination.”

“Visit Tampa Bay’s partnership with the Tampa Bay Super Cup aligns our two organizations’ shared commitment to build on Tampa Bay’s proven reputation as a world-class sports destination,” said Santiago C. Corrada. “The Tampa Bay Super Cup is a prime opportunity to further enhance our Sports Tourism standing by offering more than 20,000 participating players from across the country and internationally the chance to compete at world-class facilities, while experiencing all that Tampa Bay has to offer.”

The Tampa Bay Super Cup has established itself as a premier showcase event for youth soccer, providing high-level competition, college recruiting exposure, and a world-class tournament atmosphere throughout the Tampa Bay region.

With continued support from Visit Tampa Bay and the Tampa Bay Sports Commission, the tournament is poised for another record-breaking year both on and off the field.
